

COUNTRY'S TROUBLES ARE NEVER SO CLOSE AS SENATOR HUKS

American Business So Adjusted to Conditions That Future Prosperity Is Assured, He Declares

ADMINISTRATION HAS HELPED SOUTH GREATLY

War Insurance Bureau Did Much for Cotton Interests and Helped to Restore Price by Exports

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Senator Huk, who has been in the country for a year with hope and confidence, believes that American business has been so adjusted that prosperity is assured. He said that the termination of the war has been a great blessing to the country, and that the administration has helped the south greatly.

It is gratifying to hear from all over the country that business conditions are improving and that normal conditions have been restored, said the senator.

"If we analyze the immediate effect on our country of the war, and see that with subsequent events, we have how much better off we are than we were, and how much better off our business, and how much better off our cotton interests, it follows that a normal situation has been restored."

Senator Smith pointed out that foreign commerce for the year ending in 1914 amounted to $2,500,000,000, and that for the year ending in 1915 it amounted to $2,500,000,000.

"The suspension of a commerce with the world is a great disaster," he said. "It is a disaster that is not only a disaster to the country, but it is a disaster to the world."

BARTON MURDER CASE ARROUSES INTEREST OF INSURANCE HERE

Crooked Work Suspected in Death of Atlanta Youth in Birmingham Who Carried Heavy Life Insurance

TWO MEN HELD WHILE KILLING IS BEING PROBED

Policies Payable to Walton Trading Co., in Which One of Accused Men and Dead Man Were Partners

Atlanta, insurance men are watching with great interest the outcome of the case of E. E. Barton, a young man who was found dead in Birmingham, who was found in a suburb of Birmingham April 19. Barton carried a heavy life insurance policy aggregating $35,000, payable to the Walton Trading Company. These policies, four in number, had been taken out within the past six or eight days, and it was alleged that Barton had been negotiating for them.

The Walton Trading Company, according to the insurance company, was a blind. They say it was recently organized with a capital of $100,000, which Walton owned 1 per cent. Barton, 1 per cent, and Mrs. Walton, 98 per cent. It is alleged to have been organized to carry on a general real estate, brokerage, transportation and grocery business, and almost any other business its owners desired. No actual business, however, had been done by it, insurance officials declare. They contend it was organized to afford Walton an opportunity to collect the heavy insurance Barton was insured to carry. Walton, according to the insurance companies, also carried similar policies, but money had been paid on any of the policies, notes being given instead.

On the morning of April 9 Barton was found with three bullet holes in his head and his skull crushed by a club. He was found in a rooming house in Birmingham. He was a young man, about 25 years old, and was a native of Georgia. He was a member of the Walton Trading Company.

The "in" will fool 'em, fellows. It's easy to throw, too. Grasp the ball as shown in Fig. 1, with the two first fingers on top, the second held fast on the seam. The other pair of fingers are pressing from the other side, the ball touching almost the whole side of the third finger. The idea is to get this way between the joints of fingers, as the arrow in Fig. 2 indicates. The "in" requires speed to make it break.

"Willie, complete tender age of nine years, seemed to know something about law, and told Sheriff Ray he wanted to plead guilty. Judge J. B. Jones, however, appointed a lawyer to defend the little darkey, and the jury tried up so that a mistrial was declared.

"The body was removed to the Greenberg-Bond chapel, where it will rest until the annual birthday day, April 25. Services then will be conducted at the church of the Immaculate Conception, where the body will be carried Thursday morning to Eufaula, Ga., his former home, for the interment.

ATLANTA IS AFTER M. E. CONFERENCE FOR 1918.—Rev. A. M. Hughton, Rev. C. O. Jones, A. G. Candler and Fred Houser, as a committee appointed by the Atlanta Methodist conference to attend the general conference of the Methodist church, south, in Nashville, Tennessee, will leave Wednesday night for Nashville.

Dr. Hughton states the committee is sanguine of success despite the fact that many other southern cities are competing for the conference. It was pointed out that the conference here would be a stimulus to the metropolitan organization of Sunday university. No answer is expected by the committee for some weeks.

FINAL PAYMENT ON 1915 PENSIONS NEXT WEEK.—The final payment by the state of the 1915 pensions will be made next week. This payment will aggregate about $495,000. There is not a sufficient amount of money on hand in the state treasury, but it is expected that within the next few days remittances from county tax collectors will enable the state to pay all pensions. Approximately $500,000 has already been paid to pensioners this year. The law requires that all pensions must be paid by May 1.

THREE SERVICES SUNDAY AT JACKSON HILL CHURCH.—The public is invited to attend the three services Sunday—"Boys' day" at the Jackson Hill church, at 9:30 o'clock Sunday school will be held; at 11 o'clock Rev. L. E. Barton, the pastor, will deliver an address to boys and young men; at 8 o'clock at night a service will be held and addresses will be delivered by boys of the Gopher class of the Sunday school.

Insurance Co. Chartered.—Secretary of State Philip Cook Wednesday issued a charter to the Southern Co-operative Fire Insurance company, of Macon. Being a mutual company, the company will have no capital stock. Its incorporators are John B. Vinson, Robert W. Freeman, Otto C. Anderson, Thomas W. Stokes and Edgar D. Leverette, all of Macon.

ITALIAN STUDENTS MAKE ATTACK ON A GERMAN.—MILAN, via Paris, April 21.—For several days past the students of the Polytechnic Institute, the highest engineering university in Italy, have been making attacks on Prof. Max Abraham, because of his German nationality. The situation became so grave that Senator Giuseppe Colombo, the president, ordered the institute closed.

FAMOUS ASCOT RACES CUT DOWN BY THE WAR.—LONDON, April 21.—The Times says it understands that the Ascot race meet will be curtailed this year to three days. The meet will probably begin Wednesday, June 16, and the five handicap races which for years have been the features of the program, will be abandoned.

MRS. VIRGINIA W. SCHLEY IS KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE

Aged Woman Struck by Car
Driven by H. C. Wiggins
While Crossing Peachtree

Mrs. Virginia Walker Schley, aged seventy-five years, formerly of Augusta, and a member of one of Georgia's leading families, was knocked down and killed Tuesday afternoon at Peachtree and Linden streets by an automobile driven by H. C. Wiggins, a postal railway clerk who lives at 524 Woodward avenue.

Mrs. Schley lived with her son, Louis W. Schley, a cotton broker of Atlanta, at the residence of Mrs. Carrie B. Smith, 205 Peachtree street, on the southwest corner of Peachtree and Linden streets. About 6:30 o'clock, her driver, Mrs. Schley started across Peachtree street to the house where she took her meals. She was alone. In the middle of Peachtree street the automobile which was running south, struck her, knocked her down, and dragged her as a point in front of the C. J. Kamper grocery store, on the southwest corner of Peachtree and Linden streets.

R. P. Snow, a clerk in Alken's grocery store opposite Kamper's, saw Mrs. Schley fall from the radiator of the automobile and roll over toward the east side. He ran out and picked her up, was joined by a Mr. Matthews who was passing, and they carried Mrs. Schley to the Davis-Fisher sanitarium on Linden street half a block west of Peachtree.

An hour later Mrs. Schley died. Her left arm was broken and mangled and she had concussion of the brain. Her son, Louis W. Schley, who arrived a few minutes after the accident, was at her side when death came.

Wiggins got out of his car and followed the two men who carried Mrs. Schley to the sanitarium. Walking back from the sanitarium to Peachtree street, he told them he was all broken up and didn't know what he should do. They advised him to report to the police. At the corner they encountered a policeman and Wiggins gave him his name and address. Later in the night, Assistant Chief Jett ordered that Wiggins be arrested and placed under bond of $100, which was done.

WIDOW OF ROBERT SCHLEY.
Mrs. Schley was the widow of the late Robert Schley, of Augusta, a prominent and wealthy citizen who was president of the second cotton mill built in Georgia. His father was John Schley, judge of the superior court of Richmond county.

His grandfather was Thomas Schley, who settled in Georgia, Md. Judge John Schley was a brother of William Schley, governor of Georgia, for whom Congressman William Schley Howard was named. Mrs. Schley's husband was a first cousin of Admiral William Schley, the hero of Santiago.

Besides her son, Louis W. Schley, she had seven nephews, William D'Arcy Walker, John Walker, Warren Walker, J. Miller Walker, Fielding Walker and Theodore Caswell, all of Augusta. Three nieces, Mrs. T. B. Tobin, Mrs. Henry North and Mrs. James Walker, all of Augusta.

Mrs. Schley was a first cousin of A. H. Allred, of Atlanta, the father of Edward W. and Winter Allred, also of this city.

She was born at the ancestral home of the Walkers at Bath, a watering place near Augusta. She lived in Augusta practically all her life until two years ago, when she moved to Atlanta to be with her son.

The body was removed to Patterson's chapel Tuesday night and will be sent to Augusta Wednesday afternoon for funeral and interment.

MARSHAL FULLER AFTER NEGRO STREET LOAFERS

A crusade against negro street loafers has been inaugurated by City Marshal James Fuller and his deputies.

Will Butler, colored, was arraigned before the recorder Tuesday and forced to pay his street tax and a fine of $1.75. This was the first case made against a negro by the city marshal's office, which announces a vigorous campaign to awe the police in clearing the streets of loafers.

HUERTA'S FRIENDS BUSY; NEW REVOLUTION BREWS

Activity of Former Dictator's
Supporters Increases With Recent Reverses of Villa

EL PASO, Tex., April 21.—Since Villa's recent reverses, activity among the so-called reactionaries, of whom Huerta and Orozco were former leaders, has become more apparent across the border. Several former federal generals have appeared here within the last few days.

What is said to be a new revolutionary party has begun purchase of arms and ammunition, in some cases overbidding Carranza and Villa purchasing agents. However, no expeditions have entered Mexico as far as has been learned here, nor have any sympathetic uprisings yet occurred in the interior.

Obregon's apparently successful advance north has delayed more than ever the hope of reorganizing the Villa-Zapata convention. Roque Gonzalez Gonsalez, named provisional president by the convention, is said to be with Zapata in the vicinity of Mexico city.

Drunken Mexican Officer Caused Firing on Airship

BROWNVILLE, Tex., April 21.—A United States army biplane flying over Fort Brown, near here, was fired on late yesterday from the Mexican side of the Rio Grande. About twenty rifle shots were directed against the machine, while simultaneously a machine gun on the Mexican side from Fort Brown fired about fifty shots directed at the air craft. The machine landed safely.

Matamoros, opposite here, is occupied by Carranza troops.

The biplane was piloted by Lieutenant H. Q. Jones, with Lieutenant T. Millin as passenger-observer. The aeroplane was not struck, but one bullet hit the army wireless station at Fort Brown and another was picked up near the city hall in this city.

Colonel A. P. Blockson, commandant of Fort Brown, has reported the matter by wireless to Major General Frederick Funston, commander of the department of the south, at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio.

Jose Z. Garza, Carranza consul in Brownsville, who made a personal investigation, reported to United States army officers that the firing was done by a few Carranza soldiers in command of an intoxicated sub-lieutenant.

Guadalajara Captured
By Carranza's Forces

ON BOARD U. S. S. COLORADO, LA PAZ, Mexico, by wireless to San Diego, Cal., April 21.—Guadalajara has been captured by the Carranza forces under General Dieguez, according to an authoritative report received here.

The United States cruiser Raleigh at Manzanillo is taking steps to prevent sale of the property of Chinese, which was confiscated by the Carranza forces.

Preparations are being made by Park Manager J. O. Cochran to open Piedmont lake to bathers near the middle of June.

According to Mr. Cochran, there will be no restrictions placed on kinds of bathing suits this year, the park board only demanding that the suits contain sufficient material as not to call for the enforcement of the general city ordinance against public indecency.

With the coming of spring, crowds are flocking to the city parks and the city's thirty-two tennis courts are proving especially popular.

There are eighteen courts in Piedmont park; six in Grant park; two in Miles park; three in Oakland City park; and one each in Ponce de Leon, Howell and Shriningle parks.

The rules require that players must relinquish the courts on the hour, and children are not allowed to play after 3 p. m.

NEW FEATURES PLANNED FOR WAR ON TUBERCULOSIS

Rural Nursing Service and Free Correspondence School to Be Established

A statewide rural nursing service coupled with a free correspondence school to answer letters and send out literature, is to be established by the W. B. Rouse Foundation, in connection with the organized campaign against tuberculosis in Georgia.

W. B. Rouse, executive head of the Foundation who has just returned to Atlanta from an organization trip in south Georgia in which he visited Albany, LaGrange and other cities, declares that the disease in Georgia must be combated, if conquered at all, in the home. The Rouse Foundation is working in cooperation with the other associations already in existence in Georgia, and with them is establishing a chain of interlocking committees to take a campaign of the work in all the cities of the state. "We realize that the sanatorium is the best place for the treatment and cure of the disease, but it has begun to be generally recognized that no appreciable percent of patients can ever be brought to the sanatorium at all."

"It is generally recognized that 55 percent of those afflicted with tuberculosis can never hope to reach a sanatorium, and realizing that this is true, while the Foundation is anxious to save as many state and county sanatoria erected as possible, we propose to take to combat the disease where it will have to be conquered, if conquered at all, in the home. The fight we propose to wage, therefore, is primarily one of prevention, recognizing that prevention is better and cheaper than cure."

"Much of the work, therefore, of the foundation will be educational, through the distribution of literature, through lectures, and through the co-operation of the press. But even this will not suffice, so the foundation proposes to institute the community and rural nursing service, the nurses to be appointed by the foundation, and the foundation committee representing the foundation in this way it is hoped to put Georgia in the forefront of the fight, the nursing service embracing the full program of prevention, treatment and cure."

"To carry out this program the foundation will need much larger resources than it now has, and the various localities where the service is established will be expected to co-operate in financing this movement."

"The correspondence system will be along the lines recently inaugurated with success in North Carolina, though it will be impossible now in this state to carry the work to the same extent for the lack of office help. Literature touching on prevention and treatment, and proper sanitation, will be sent free, however, to everyone who requests it. Of the Rouse Foundation, and of other possible questions which are not covered by the printed literature, will be answered by special letters. The foundation invites any one interested to write."

BIG CHORUS TO BE ADDED TO ATLANTA ORCHESTRA

200 Members Are Wanted, Active Season Next Winter Planned

The movement among the orchestra society has proved so successful during the recent several weeks of rehearsals and preliminary organization that the society have decided to add a chorus of 200 men to their forces, thus enabling them to produce oratorios, choral symphonies, cantatas, etc., in addition to the orchestral work.

The summer months are expected to result in many rehearsals of the new chorus in preparation for an active season next winter. A cordial invitation is extended to singers who would like to identify themselves with the movement, and while only 200 members are planned for now, more will be admitted, if conditions require.

Applicants for membership are requested to confer with Joe M. Wasthoff, secretary of the Atlanta Federation of Musicians, at 34 1/2 Peachtree street, between the hours of 11 a. m. and 4:30 p. m. daily.

ROSINA GALLI, STAR OF BALLET, WAS A DANCER IN HER BABYHOOD

THREE GLIMPSES OF ROSINA GALLI, FIRST DANCER.

Now Premier Danseuse of the Metropolitan Opera—Appears Three Times in Atlanta Season Next Week

"I'm going to be a ballerina." This was the answer that Rosina Galli made as a wee tot whenever she was asked the usual query: "What are you going to do when you grow up? And truly she could not have helped expressing this ambition, for there never was a young girl more securely marked out by fate for a dancer's career than the present premier danseuse of the Metropolitan opera house. At the age of three, she was taken to the Metropolitan opera house, where she was to appear in the role of the first ballerina of America, of the dancer who is to appear at the head of the Metropolitan opera ballet next year. Miss Galli testified to this effect the other morning, her remarks being interpreted by G. Viofano, since Miss Galli is not yet able to express all of her thoughts in English, though she understands what is said to her in her language.

"When I was four," said Signorina Galli, "there was a dancing contest for children in Milan, and the children were present in masquerade costumes, with their families. I wanted to enter in the contest, but I was taken there to see it. Although I wasn't a contestant, right in the midst of things I stepped forward and began to dance. When I finished the judges were amazed and they said, 'That is remarkable, whom are you studying with?' 'I am not studying,' I said, 'for the music is my teacher.' When they talked of giving me the prize the other people were angry because I wasn't in the contest, but the judges said, 'We can't help but give the prize to this child.'"

Almost miraculously the continued triumph of youth in Miss Galli's career. She was only eight when she started dancing at La Scala in Milan. A scene book which Mrs. Galli produced for the dancing at La Scala in Milan. A scene book which Mrs. Galli produced for the dancing at La Scala in Milan. A scene book which Mrs. Galli produced for the dancing at La Scala in Milan.

At fourteen the young signorina was the premiere at the San Carlo in Naples, and a year later she came to America to give a revelation in the dancing art for the audiences of the Chicago Opera company. The following summer the young Italian girl added London to her list of conquests with her work at Covent Garden. "I did not want to go to London that summer," she related, "as I was all tired out, but Mr. Wolf-Ferrari urged me to appear over there in his

MEMORIAL DAY PLANS ARE MADE FOR ATLANTA

Tributes Will Be Paid to Heroes of the Confederacy
Next Monday

Atlanta next Monday will pay tribute to the heroes of the Confederacy with the usual Memorial day parade and exercises at Oakland cemetery. Major Joseph F. Burke of the Old Guard, will be marshal of the day, and is preparing a splendid program. The parade will commence at 2 o'clock and will move through the principal downtown streets to the cemetery.

A feature of the parade will be the school children's division in which 1,800 boys and girls will march and wave the flag of the Union and the Confederacy. William M. Slaton, superintendent of the city public schools, will be marshal of this division, and has invited a large number of prominent citizens to ride with him in his staff.

George M. Napier of Decatur and Atlanta, solicitor of the Stone Mountain circuit, and a lawyer noted for his eloquence, will deliver the oration at the cemetery exercises. Rev. W. W. Meminger, rector of All Saints Episcopal church, will be chaplain.

"Jewels of the Madonna," so, of course, I consented."

HONORS IN THREE LANDS. After her three years with Chicago company, Miss Galli was not allowed to pursue her art any longer outside of New York, for she was engaged by Mr. Gatti-Casazza for his Metropolitan forces. Think of the achievement! At nineteen Miss Galli is now the prima ballerina at the world's premier opera house. And the three years preceding she won similar honors with four leading companies in three lands.

This result has been gained not only by her unusual gifts as a danseuse, but by her persistent determination to follow that career, despite the early objections of her family. When my relatives said they didn't want me to be a dancer I told them that if I couldn't do that I wouldn't do anything," she recalled.

Miss Galli and her dances will appear in Atlanta in "The Huguenots," "Carmen" and "Rigoletto."

NO COMPLAINTS MADE AGAINST POLICE DEPT

Probe Begins Wednesday Night and Each Branch Will Be Taken Up

If any charges of inefficiency in the police department are to be made before the special investigating committee Wednesday night, the complainants have not notified Chairman S. A. Wardlaw that they will appear before the committee.

Neither Mr. Wardlaw nor Secretary W. T. Morris, of the police commission, had received any formal complaint from any citizen Wednesday. Mr. Wardlaw had received a report of a burglary from a citizen living at 155 Juniper, but the report contained no criticism of the police department.

In the event no citizens appear to complain about the conduct of the department, Mr. Wardlaw says the committee will formulate a method of procedure and will of its own initiative begin the probe of the department. It is likely that each branch of the department will be considered separately, the committee quizzing officers and members of the force and probing into the records of the department.

The investigation will begin at 8 o'clock. Besides Chairman Wardlaw, the members of the commission appointed on the committee are C. J. Vaughan, J. D. Sisson, Robert C. Clarke and Robert Holland.

Immediately after their appointment a week ago the members of the committee announced that they desired to hear from citizens on Wednesday night.

The committee asks that specific charges against any member of the force be made in writing, but that general charges against the department will be heard orally.

Blowing Up the Scenery

All the regular scenery of California was there before you were born—and before anybody else was born. It was dropped there before things got settled. But Universal City is new. It's a moving picture city full of actors and actresses, savage animals that haven't been tamed, railroads of our own, flying machines, cowboys, Indians, mountains, canyons, crocodiles, rolling meadows and Billy Ritchie—all engaged in making moving pictures for the UNIVERSAL.

Some days we blow the scenery up. Some days we smash locomotives and hold an earthquake. We deal in floods, burning buildings, heroic rescues and emotional yarns. If it's beautiful you there and we'd like to have you in on all these celebrations. Come and bring the family. You'll see something you can't see any place else in the world. UNIVERSAL CITY can't be imagined. It's got to be seen. It's only a few moments from Los Angeles and Los Angeles is on the direct line of the Santa Fe.

Grape-Nuts is a concentrated food, hence a small portion goes a long way.

It is made of wheat and barley, and contains all the nutrient of these grains, including those invaluable mineral salts so often lacking in ordinary food, but which are indispensable for normal growth and maintenance of body and brain. One great aim in originating Grape-Nuts was to supply this lack of mineral elements, and it fulfills its purpose admirably.

At the annual meeting of the Atlanta Methodist Stewards' association Tuesday night, it was announced that an Emory University Foundation club had been formed for the purpose of raising the $500,000 guaranteed to the university by the chamber of commerce.

"Don't let $500,000 look too large," said Bishop Warren A. Chandler, chancellor of the university. "Already we have enrolled 118 members in the club and five of these members have subscribed $50,000."

COUNTRY'S TROUBLES ARE OVER NOW, SAYS SENATOR HOKE SMITH

German harbors. The Democratic administration here has at all times been anxious in co-operation with the committee appointed by the senate to adjust these conditions, and the people of the south, farmers and business men, have been substantially helped by this work.

Had it not been for our shipments of cotton abroad, the price of cotton which had gone down to 6 cents a pound last fall, might not have risen. Foreign consumption of last year's crop was not only a help to those who sold last year's crop, but it is a help to our entire section, for it removes that much of last year's enormous crop which otherwise would have hung with depressing force upon the crop of the present year.

REPELLED OUT INDENTUREES

Since the first of December last year, through the removal of the threatened indenture system and through the active efforts to bring down insurance rates and to facilitate trans-shipment of goods, our commerce has gone pouring out to foreign consumers. Up to March 1st, we had shipped abroad our products and sold them, since December 1, to an amount which gave us a balance in favor of the United States against foreign countries amounting to $45,000,000. We have since sold our indenturees for $10,000,000, which was causing us a considerable loss. August, and we have put the balance in favor of the United States, and this balance is rapidly increasing. Our domestic manufacturers are again in full operation. They have a wealth of foreign markets and can secure business in an easy money market.

Thus it can be seen that the dangers which hung over us last August caused by the removal of the indenture system are now in the past. The balance is now in favor of this country, and our domestic trade is taking new force and vigor as a result of changed conditions. We may now look forward to the coming year with hope and confidence. If the war ends this fall, next year would mark the beginning of a new era in the history of the country, and even the war business can be adjusted to changed conditions that prosperity is assured."

SOMETHING DOING AT THE BIG OLSAN STORE TOMORROW

Down at the big clothing store of Olsan Company, at the corner of Decatur and Pryor streets, there's going to be something doing tomorrow. It won't stop with tomorrow, either, for the "something doing" will last for several days—but it will start tomorrow, early tomorrow morning. And it will start with a bang.

You know the place, the big store just a few seconds from Five Points. A wonderful lot of clothing, all new and specially designed and made for the spring. In it we arranged here and there, and the prices—well, they have been cut and then cut again. Now they're cut to the limit. Right here at the beginning of the spring season. It's the opportunity that you would have liked to have last spring and a dozen springtimes before, but which you didn't have. It's really the opportunity of the year 1915 for the people of Atlanta and we want you to come. Come tomorrow. Come the next day when you can, but come. It may be that you have never been in this big clothing store before—and if that's the case, then you have something waiting for you sure enough. You'll be surprised to see what a wonderful saving you can have here on the new and most stylishly-made clothing.

NO DOUBT THAT RESINOL DOES HEAL SICK SKIN

When you know physicians have prescribed Resinol for 20 years in the treatment of eczema and other itching, burning, unsightly skin eruptions and have written thousands of reports saying "It is the regular prescription for itching skin," Resinol has produced brilliant results. "The result it gave was marvellous in one of the worst cases of eczema, etc., etc. doesn't it make you feel that 'this is the treatment I can rely on for my skin trouble'?"

The moment Resinol Ointment touches itching skin, the itching stops and healing begins. With the aid of Resinol soap, it almost always clears away every trace of eczema, ringworm, pimples, or other tormenting eruption quickly, leaving the skin clear and healthy, aided by all druggists. For trial free, write to Dept. 17-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. (Adv.)

Many social entertainments are being planned for the visitors from Sophie Newcomb. They will reach Atlanta Saturday morning.

SMOKE INSPECTOR GIVEN MORE WORK ON SAME PAY

Hereafter He Will Test All Oils Purchased by the City

The name of the smoke department was changed and the scope of its work was substantially enlarged by an ordinance which the general council passed Monday afternoon at the request of the smoke board.

Under this ordinance, which was passed in the form of an amendment to the ordinance which created the department, the department hereafter will be known as the department of mechanical engineering, and the smoke inspector will be known as the city mechanical engineer.

In addition to inspecting smokestacks for the purpose of enforcing the city smoke ordinance and testing gas and gas meters, which work the smoke inspector now does, he will in future, under his enlarged duties, test all the fuels and lubricants bought by the city. In the course of a year the city buys about $1,000,000 worth of coal and several thousand dollars' worth of gasoline and oil for its automobiles. Up to this time it has had no systematic test of these supplies.

Although the duties of the inspector are largely increased, there is no increase in salary provided by the ordinance.

HOW TO RELIEVE KIDNEY PAINS

I have used Swamp-Root more or less the last few years, and have always got great relief. About three months ago I was taken down with severe pains through the back and limbs, I was very nervous and was very restless at night. When taking my Swamp-Root and before I used a half bottle, I felt great relief and I kept on taking it until I began to feel myself again. I have recommended it to my neighbors and friends, and several of them informed me that they have been greatly benefited by using it. I cannot say enough for Swamp-Root, and I heartily recommend it for Kidney trouble and Rheumatism. You have my consent to publish this statement. I am 77 years old. Corn and Canning Organizations Break Records for Membership

One hundred and seventy-eight boys and girls, the highest enrollment in the history of Dekalb county is the result of the campaign that has been waged for membership in the Dekalb county boys and girls' corn and canning clubs by County Agent R. S. Hunter, Miss Annie Wesley, collaborator, and the Decatur board of trade.

Of this enrollment, ninety-one are members of the canning club and the remainder are boys who have joined the corn club. The Decatur board of trade has offered prizes amounting to $200 for the best corn and canning exhibits at the products pageant in Decatur next October. The board also has offered prizes for the county schools showing the largest percentage of enrollment.

Number of interesting rallies during the summer have been planned for the members of the canning club, when prominent leaders, such as Dr. A. M. Soule, president of the State College of Agriculture; Dr. Phil Campbell, state corn club agent; District Agent Cowan, and Congressman W. H. Clegg, are expected to speak to the boys and girls.

Dr. Wiley S. Ansel, a director of the Decatur board of trade, has mapped out the campaign of assistance given by the board.

ATLANTA BOY HONORED AT UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA

William C. Matthews Has Been Elected Athletic Editor of College Topics

Dispatches from Charlottesville, Va., Wednesday state that William C. Matthews, of Atlanta, has been elected athletic editor of College Topics for 1915-1916.

College Topics is published under the auspices of the General Athletic Association of the University of Virginia. Its purpose is to cover the general news of the institution. A position on the staff is considered a high honor in the university, and Atlanta friends of Mr. Matthews congratulate him on his success.

"Bill" Matthews--as most of his friends know him--is a graduate of the Boy's High school, class of 1913. During his senior year in high school he was editor of The Journal's school page, and has had further experience in newspaper work, displaying marked talent and ability.

Since entering Virginia he has made an enviable record in scholarship and athletics. He is one of the best tennis players in the university, a member of the university team at a number of his tournaments in southern cities.

Mr. Matthews is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Matthews, 12 East Marietta avenue. He has many friends in Atlanta who wish him luck in whatever he undertakes.

First Impressions

About the first thing a visitor notices in a city new to him is that city's street railroad. Its cars help seeing it. It's before his eyes.

Consciously or unconsciously he forms from it one of his very first impressions of the city it's serving.

If it's shabby, dilapidated, defected, discouraged, inefficient, the newcomer's impression's sure to be unfavorable.

If the street railroad's efficient, if its vehicles are neat and attractive, if its employees are polite and courteous as contented men must be, the visitor's impression's certain to be favorable.

And first impressions count. They make or mar anything, anybody, unless later impressions are tremendously powerful. They're never entirely erased from a newcomer's mind.

Atlanta is a proud city today because she's made good first impressions on strangers through many years back. Thousands of 'em have stayed or returned.

A prosperous street railroad has incentive to give good service, pay good wages, keep its cars and other equipment neat and efficient, extend existing lines, build new ones, enlarge its plants, contribute to the promotion of public enterprises.

Therefore you're bound to be interested in our part in the city's great works. Aren't you?

TAG DAY ON THURSDAY

The cordial interest of all women's organizations centers in Tag day which falls this year on Thursday, April 22. The custom of selling tags on one day in the year for the benefit of the babies in the day nurseries of the Shalston Arms has become an institution in the city. This year the association which does such a notable work in support of day nurseries finds itself badly in need of money and is counting on a generous support from every person in the city, man, woman or child, who is interested in the welfare of little children.

Bright and early Thursday morning committees of girls and young matrons will throng the streets and office buildings and sell daily colored tags, each one of which stands for the material comfort and welfare of some poor baby.

LIST OF CHAIRMEN FOR DAY.
Mrs. Cliff Atchison, Georgian Terrace; Mrs. Roy Collier, Iragan; Mrs. Charles Sisson, Piedmont; Mrs. H. F. Courtney, English-American building; Mrs. W. P. AMERICAN SHIPPERS KICK
ON DELAYS OF CARGOES

Hundreds of Bales of Cotton Thrown Into Prize Court by British Regulation

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, April 21.—American shippers are complaining vigorously to the American embassy because they are compelled by the admiralty to bear the expense incident to delays of cargoes for examination. Charges for loading and unloading, and other port expenses incurred in the examination of suspected goods are assessed against the owners of the cargoes or ships. Six hundred bales of cotton from the Swedish steamer Georgia, which was held up, March 22, for Gothenburg, have been thrown into prize court at Kinkwall because they were not certified as having been loaded prior to March 1, which would exempt them from the operation of the order in council. For the same reason 296 bales of cotton were removed from the Danish steamer Leire from Galveston, March 16, for Gothenburg. Part of the cargo of cotton of the Greek steamer Spyros Vallianos, from Savannah, March 19, for Gothenburg, has been purchased by the British government, having been certificated.

JAPANESE STATESMEN
CONFER ABOUT CHINA

(By Associated Press.)
TOKIO, April 21.—The crisis which has come in the negotiations with China, was the subject today of a protracted conference of the cabinet. The members of the "Genro," or the elder statesmen of Japan, have been communicated with on the subject. The semi-official press expresses the belief that Japan has brought the unsettled clauses of her demands down to an irreducible minimum, and that if China procrastinates further Japan probably will press for a reply within a given period of time. The cabinet and the elder statesmen held a joint conference this afternoon concerning the Chinese negotiations.

ANOTHER BUYING WAVE
LIFTS STOCKS UP HIGHER

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, April 21.—Another buying wave, combined with further covering of short contracts, lifted stocks 1 1/2 points in the first half hour of today's active session. Bethlehem Steel opened at a 1-point advance, which it increased to over 2. Other specialties also showed conspicuous strength. Coppers were the chief feature as a group. Sales in the first hour approximated 350,000 shares. The market then alternately rose and fell, many important stocks reaching new peaks. By afternoon United States Steel, Union Pacific, Amalgamated Copper, Reading, New Haven and New York Central were selling under yesterday's close.

CONFERENCE IS HELD BY
RECEIVERS OF THE G. & F.

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 21.—Colonel J. M. Wilkinson, of Valdosta, W. R. Sullivan, of New York, and H. R. Sullivan, of Baltimore, receivers of the Georgia and Florida railways, are in Augusta for conference. The receivers are getting the property in shape so that they can properly administer it until such time as the court sees fit to pass an order to sell it. General Manager Kirkland and his entire staff of officers have been retained by the receivers.
